A GRAVE COMPLICATION

Reported Arrival of Key West Filibusterers in Cuba.

CARRIED BOTH TROOPS AND ARMS.

If the Report be Established as Truth, and Due Diligence Was Not Exercised to Prevent the Departure, Our Government Will be Responsible for Damages.

WASHINGTON, June 14.—The steamer George Childs, carrying the filibustering expedition from Key West has landed at Jamaica. Definite information to this effect has been received here. It was due in a large measure to the sailing of this expedition last week that the administration determined on energetic steps to prevent violation of the neutrality laws and caused President Cleveland to issue his proclamation.

The information from Jamaica states only that the steamer has landed, but does not add details as to whether the filibusterers are still on board or were landed at some point in Cuba. Jamaica lies south of the easterly end of Cuba, so that the steamer could have landed her party either on the east or west end of the island. It was first claimed that the party numbered 2,000 men, but later and more authoritative information reaching here fixes the number at less than fifty, including four leaders.

The George Childs sailed originally from Philadelphia. When she cleared there was nothing suspicious about her cargo, although a watch was kept on her movements. She stopped at a small point down the Delaware bay, where it is believed she took aboard arms, ammunition and a large quantity of food supplies suitable for an expedition. Another steamer, the Bridgeport, accompanied her, but her future movements are not yet located.

Jamaica is a British colony, and it is said that the British authorities will take all necessary steps to see that filibustering is not aided from that point. Spanish gun boats have been on the outlook for the Key West party, so that the arrival of the Childs at Jamaica indicates that their watch has been unavailing.

If the George Childs, as alleged, has carried from the United States a supply of munitions of war and armed men to aid the rebels in Cuba the incident may raise a grave question as to the responsibility of our government. On the statement of facts as reported to our officials the case bears a strong resemblance to the celebrated Alabama affair, which cost the British government many millions of dollars to settle.

It cannot be said that the decision of the United States courts in the Itata case fits this, and would justify our officials in failing to put forth all proper effort to detain the ship, for in that case the court made the point that the Itata expedition did not originate in the United States, and was simply a merchant vessel coming from a foreign country and receiving aboard a load of merchandise. In the Childs case, however, the vessel was under the United States flag and practically the expedition originated in this country.

It is said that our government was duly advised of the intended departure of the Childs expedition, though whether the advices were in themselves sufficient to make up a prima facia case justifying the arrest of the parties or the detention of the vessel under the terms of our own law cannot be learned.

By the terms of the treaty of Washington the United States bound Great Britain and itself to the doctrine that a nation is bound to use "due diligence" to prevent the departure of armed expeditions against a friendly nation. This raises the point whether the United States can be held to have exercised due diligence in this matter.

England Also After Filibusterers.

LONDON, June 14.—It is announced by the admiralty that the first class gunboat Partridge, of the North America and West Indies squadron, will start on June 15 for Bermuda and the Bahamas to relieve the cruiser Mohawk in assisting to prevent filibustering expeditions to Cuba.

Barbarous Cuban Insurgents.

HAVANA, June 14.—The insurgents have burned the village of Cuevitas, near Santiago de Cuba, destroying twenty houses. In addition they barbarously murdered five citizens by hacking them with machetes and wounded two others.

Extending the Civil Service.

WASHINGTON, June 14.—President Cleveland signed an order prepared by the civil service commission whereby about 2,500 positions in the government printing office are put within the classified civil service. This addition will bring the total number of positions coming under the civil service in this country to approximately 55,000.

Free Trade in New South Wales.

SYDNEY, June 14.—The assembly has passed, on its second reading, the customs bill which abolishes the duties imposed in 1891, and virtually establishes free trade.

North Dakota's Phenomenal Hailstorm.

ANSELM, N. D., June 14.—A phenomenal hailstorm destroyed thousands of acres of grain in the eastern portion of Ransom county. The storm was sixteen miles long and six miles wide. Hailstones as big as hen's eggs fell to the depth of six inches.

Two Negro Murderers Lynched.

KENO, Texas, June 14.—Alex White and John Cherry, murderers of an old pumper named Johnson, were lynched by a crowd of citizens during the night. The effects of the murdered man were found on the negroes.

NEW JERSEY APPROPRIATIONS.

They Aggregate $362,342 More Than Was Required Last Year.

TRENTON, June 14.—The state appropriation bill, which has now been passed by both houses, is not going to be such an economical measure as has all along been predicted by the investigating committee who recommend it. The bill foots up as it will go to the governor, $4,488,807. This, however, includes the sum of $2,193,249, which is received from the state school tax for the support of the schools, and is again paid out to the various counties. Taking this from the total there is left $2,292,557 for various state purposes. The total expended in 1894 was $1,930,225, which is $362,342 less than the amount of the new bill.

Governor Werts sent to the senate the following nominations: For lay judges of court of errors and appeals, Albert R. Tallman, George C. Smith; for law judge of Middlesex county, J. Kearney Rice; for prosecutor of Middlesex county, Robert Adrian; Gloucester county, A. H. Swackhammer; for lay judge of Gloucester county, Bowman S. Cox. The senate, however, rejected all executive nominations except that of ex-Governor Ludlow for supreme court justice, Chandler W. Riker for circuit court judge and Fred A. Canfield for member of the state board of assessors.

The house passed over the governor's veto the senate bills reducing the fees of the clerks of the supreme court and court of chancery; the Newark bills to give the mayor of the city power to fill vacancies in common council and the board of education, and also the bill repealing the law giving the governor thirty days after the adjournment of the legislature to consider bills.

The senate refused to pass Assemblyman Bullock's bill compelling corporations other than railroads to pay their employes semi-monthly. The house passed the assembly concurrent resolution favoring a constitutional amendment giving women the right to vote at school elections.

Both houses adjourned sine die at 3:32.

Omaha Citizens Organizing.

OMAHA, June 14.—Citizens of Omaha, without regard to party affiliations, have united in a determination to wage a vigorous campaign against the American Protective association in this city. It is claimed that the organization here has fallen into the hands of unscrupulous party leaders. The best citizens of Omaha have determined to unite in a movement for good government. To this end a strong organization has been effected, and within a day or two a declaration of principles will be published, signed by prominent citizens. The issue will be carried into the coming municipal and county campaign.

Whitecaps Warmly Welcomed.

SALEM, Mo., June 14.—The home of John Harvey, two miles north of here, was visited by a mob of whitecaps numbering about twenty-five. Part of the mob forced its way into the house and were met by Harvey in the upper hall. Harvey opened fire at once, killing Joseph Nelson. Then he went to the window and fired at a man in the yard, wounding him. The wounded man was carried off by his friends. Harvey has for some time past been enamored of a young woman named Curtis, and has on numerous occasions threatened her life unless she married him. This was the cause of the raid.

Warburton-Wanamaker.

PHILADELPHIA, June 14.—Miss Wanamaker, daughter of Hon. John Wanamaker, postmaster general in the cabinet of President Harrison, was married yesterday afternoon to Mr. Barclay H. Warburton, the publisher of The Evening Telegraph, of this city. The ceremony took place at Lindenhurst, the home of the bride's parents, at Chelten Hills. The wedding was a very quiet affair, only the immediate members of the two families being present.

The Cornell-Pennsylvania Race.

ITHACA, N. Y., June 14.—The Cornell Pennsylvania freshmen race on Cayuga lake will be rowed between 5 and 6 o'clock this evening, and the managers are going to try to keep the steamers at a considerable distance from the course. Murderer Andrews Hanged.

BELVIDERE, N. J., June 14.—George Andrews, the colored wife murderer, was hanged upon the gallows in the Warren county jailyard yesterday. Andrews' neck was not broken, and death was by strangulation. Just before the drop was sprung Rev. Mr. Fassett stated to the jury and those present that Andrews acknowledged that his execution was a vindication of justice and of law.

Captain Howgate's Trial.

WASHINGTON, June 14.—The features of the trial of Captain Howgate yesterday was the attempt of the defense to introduce testimony to show that General Hazen, then chief of the signal service bureau, was cognizant of the whereabouts of Captain Howgate while the latter was in New York in 1887. The testimony was ruled out.

MANITOBA'S DEFIANCE.

She Ignores the Order of the Dominion Government.

MUST BE NO CATHOLIC SCHOOLS

Supported by Public Treasury—"We Cannot Accept the Responsibility of Carrying Into Effect the Terms of the Remedial Order."

WINNIPEG, Man., June 14.—Manitoba replies in the negative to the demand of the Ottawa government that separate schools be re-established in the province, as commanded in the order presented to the legislature last April. This reply was presented to the legislature yesterday afternoon, and states in effect:

"We are compelled to respectfully state to your excellency in council that we cannot accept the responsibility of carrying into effect the terms of remedial order. Objections upon principal may be taken to any modification of our educational statutes which would result in the establishment of one or more sets of separate schools. Apart even from objection on principle, there are serious objections from a practicable educational standpoint. We labor under great difficulties in maintaining an efficient system of primary education. The school taxes bear heavily upon our people. The large amount of land which is free from school taxes and the great extent of country over which our small population is scattered presents obstacles to efficiency and progress.

"The reforms effected in 1890 have given an impetus to educational work, but the difficulties which were inherent in our circumstances have constantly to be met. It will be obvious that the establishment of a set of Roman Catholic schools, followed by a set of Anglican schools, and possibly Mennonite and Icelandic schools, would so emasculate our present system that any approach to even our present general standard of efficiency would be quite impossible. We have no hesitation in saying that there cannot be suggested any measure, to our minds, that would more seriously imperil the development of our province."

It is held that any action of the parliament of Canada looking to the restoration of Roman Catholic privileges must, to be of real substantial benefit, be supplemented by the voluntary action of the provincial legislature.

The reply expresses willingness to reimburse Catholics if any injustice has been done in the matter of private church funds invested.

Will Contest Fred Douglass' Will.

WASHINGTON, June 14.—The effort to settle the estate of the late Fred Douglass out of court apparently has been unsuccessful. Nathan Sprague, whose wife is one of Mr. Douglass' children and heirs, says a suit to enforce her rights will be begun in a few days. She will make the widow and her brother, Lewis H. Douglass, the administrators under the will, defendants. Mr. Sprague says that the widow, by the most recent arrangements, is to get about everything in sight—that is, if there is not a proper intervention.

To Raise Rolling Mill Workers' Wages.

CLEVELAND, June 14.—The Cleveland Rolling Mill company yesterday posted notices to the effect that the wages of all the laborers and mechanics employed in the works would be raised after Saturday next. The laborers, between 500 and 600 in number, will be increased from $1.12½ per day to $1.25 and the mechanics will receive a general advance of 10 per cent.

Mrs. Boles' Big Alimony.

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo., June 14.—The district court has granted Mrs. Julia A. Sherman Boles, of California, a divorce, with $75,000 alimony, from Richard Johnson Boles, a wealthy mining man of this city, on the ground of desertion. Mrs. Clara Foltz, the female lawyer of San Francisco, appeared for the complainant.

Big Verdict Against Rockefeller.

DULUTH, June 14.—A verdict was returned last evening by the jury in the case of Alfred Merritt against John D. Rockefeller for $3[illegible],000. The action was brought in the United States court to recover $1,250,000 as damages caused to the plaintiff by reason of alleged fraudulent representation made by Mr. Rockefeller and his agents at the time when the Merritt properties on the Mesaba range were included in the Lake Superior Consolidated mines, now controlled by Mr. Rockefeller.

New Jersey's Prohibition Candidate.

NEWARK, N. J., June 14.—The second day's session of the New Jersey Prohibition gubernatorial convention opened at the Essex Lyceum with nearly all of the 500 delegates present. W. H. Nicholson, the permanent chairman, presided. A platform was adopted, the planks of which call for a change in the method of securing grand juries. H. W. Wilbur, of Vineland, was unanimously nominated for governor.

The French Road Vehicles.

PARIS, June 14.—The road race of vehicles propelled by petroleum or steam power from this city to Bordeaux and back which started on Monday from the Place d'Armes, at Versailles, the total distance being 750 miles, was concluded yesterday. Car No. 5, constructed on the Parhard system, covered the distance in a little over forty-eight hours.

Colombia Will Not Interfere.

WASHINGTON, June 14.—General Rengifo, charge d'affaires of Colombia, says that Colombia will maintain strict neutrality in the Ecuadorean uprising, and that the sensational cables in a New York paper, stating that Colombia was about to intervene, are wholly unfounded.

His Self Inflicted Wound Proved Fatal.

WILMINGTON, Del., June 14.—Philip Arnbold, who shot himself in the left breast at his wife's grave in Riverview cemetery yesterday afternoon, died at the Delaware hospital. Brooding over financial troubles led him to take his life.

MANUEL ZORILLA DEAD.

The Noted Spanish Leader Who Always Opposed the Monarchy.

BURGOS, Spain, June 14.—Senor Manuel Ruiz Zorilla, the noted Republican leader, died yesterday. Zorilla was elected to the cortes from 1856 to 1861, and at once became a vigorous champion of the Liberal party. He took part in many revolutionary juntas, and stood in the breach at many political crises. He was expelled from Madrid in June, 1866, and proceeded to Cadiz with General Prim and Senor Sagasta. The coup d'etat of 1874 removed him from power, forcing him to resign not only the leadership of his party but his seat as deputy.

Driven out of Spain a few days after the restoration of Don Alfonso and sent from Bayonne to Paris upon the demand of the Spanish government, he lived in the capital from February, 1875, till the summer of 1877. Later he tried to get France to interfere in the affairs of Spain, and he has been directly or indirectly concerned in every movement to overthrow the monarchical government of Spain.

THE WHISKY TRUST ILLEGAL.

And It Is Asserted That the Pullman Company Will Follow.

SPRINGFIELD, Ills., June 14.—The decision of the lower court regarding the whisky trust has been sustained by the supreme court, which holds that the trust is illegal.

Attorney General Molloney, in discussing the situation of the supreme court in the whisky trust case, says: "It is plain from the language used by the supreme court in this case that the Pullman Palace Car company will meet with the same fate at the hands of this court that the whisky trust has met with. The supreme court has expressly decided that corporations organized under the laws of this state have only such express powers as are granted to them, and that their powers must be strictly construed, and all that is not given to them in express language is denied."

The words of the supreme court are: "It should be remembered that grants of power in corporate charters are to be construed strictly, and that what is not clearly given is by implication denied." The defendant is authorized to own such property as is necessary for carrying on its distillery business, and no more. Its power to acquire and hold property is limited to that purpose."

An Aeronaut's Fall to Death.

BATTLE CREEK, Mich., June 14.—Fred Pate, colored, of this city, was killed while making a balloon ascension at Marcellus. The balloon had ascended but a short distance when Pate discovered that it was leaking. It floated over a clump of trees and remained perfectly still. It was impossible to use the parachute, and the aeronaut finally dropped into a tree. He managed to grasp a limb and hold on for a moment, but it broke and he was dashed to the ground, two of his ribs being driven into his lungs. He lived about two hours. A large crowd witnessed the accident. Pate had made hundreds of ascensions and once before was nearly killed.

Fears of Riots in Idaho.

BOISE, June 14.—An alarming state of affairs exists in Coeur d'Alene, in northern Idaho. News reached here indicating that serious trouble is likely to break out there at any time between the miners' union and the law and order men, who have organized to protect laborers in their right to work if they can get employment and the mine owners in their right to employ whom they please. A man who incurred the enmity of the miners' union was killed there recently, and a coroner's jury returned a verdict of suicide.

Black Flags May Fight the Japs.

LONDON, June 14.—A dispatch from Shanghai says that a remnant of the famous Black Flags is entrenched at Chung-Wa, Island of Formosa, and that they are expected to make a determined stand against the Japanese, who are taking possession of that island according to the terms of the treaty of peace.

THE SILVER CONVENTION

The Advocates of an Independent Party Defeated.

CONSERVATISM WINS THE DAY

It Is Decided by the Majority That a Determined Effort Will be Made to Force the Free Silver Idea Into the Democratic Platform.

MEMPHIS, June 14.—The possible disruption of the old parties—of the Democratic party in the south and the Republican party in the west—must have been the uppermost in the mind of any thoughtful observer of the past two days' proceedings in the great silver convention which has been in session at the Auditorium. Both sides of this proposition were discussed yesterday in impassioned speeches and strong argumentative appeals to the 1,500 delegates and visitors who attended the big mass meeting.

The first warning of the approaching encounter was heard Wednesday night in the bold utterances of Congressman Joseph C. Sibley, of Pennsylvania, in favor of a silver party, an aggressive campaign for the demonetization of the white metal without regard to previous party ties. Yesterday all disguise was thrown off. The men who favor a silver party, with one purpose and one idea, under the leadership of Sibley, Tillman of South Carolina, Butler of North Carolina, Stewart of Nevada and Adams of Colorado, told of their plans without reserve, and asked their hearers to decide between party and nation.

On the other hand, those who favor the settlement of the silver question within party lines, urged conservative action, and vigorous agitation for free silver, but bearing in mind that there were other questions of importance to the political future of the country which should cause the voter to think well before casting off the party affiliations of years and giving his undivided suffrage to the one cause of silver. The money question, they claimed, should and would be settled within party lines.

The conservative element prevailed in the committee on resolutions, and the declarations of that body, which were adopted by the convention, did not go beyond a strong presentation of the free silver views of the gathering. But the convention adjourns with a schism in it. One faction advocates the Sibley "idea" and the capture of the Democratic convention, and failing in that the independent political action, while others were for fighting the issue strictly within party lines.

The resolutions are quite lengthy. They assert that the recent depression was due to the conspiracy by which silver was demonetized. The effect of the gold standard is to establish one standard for the creditor and one for the debtor. No just law establishes one measure of value for the borrower and one for the lender. The restoration of silver as a money metal on an equality with gold and the free and unlimited coinage of silver and gold at a ratio of 16 to 1 is demanded. While international agreement is desirable, the United States should not wait on this agreement nor surrender the sovereign right to regulate its financial affairs in the interest of its people.

A national committee was appointed to call a national silver convention in its discretion. The committee will meet in Chicago in July to perfect a permanent organization.

Shipwrecked Sailors Arrive.

BALTIMORE, June 14.—The steamer Hestia, Captain Rainnie, which arrived yesterday from Glasgow, brought into port nine seamen of the wrecked Norwegian bark Ragnhild, bound from Liverpool for Halifax. The rescued men told a pitiful tale. They had been eight days at the pumps, with the vessel leaking two feet of water an hour. During the last twenty-four hours they were aboard they had tasted no food, and the leak had increased to three feet an hour. The Norwegian captain and his men were so weak they could scarcely stand, and but for the tender care bestowed upon them they would likely have died even after being rescued.

Murdered His Benefactor and Himself.

WATERBURY, Conn., June 14.—William Bowne killed his brother-in-law, William Harvey, and himself on the principal street of the city. Bowne had been leading such a dissolute life that his wife left him and went with her three children to live with Harvey. Harvey forbade Bowne coming to his place, and they quarreled frequently over the abuse Bowne had inflicted upon his wife. Harvey was seated back of the cigar case at the front of his saloon when Bowne passed in back of the screen, and in less than a minute both were dead.

Harcourt Rebukes Chamberlain.

LONDON, June 14.—In the house of commons last evening, during the discussion of a credit for building a railway and the protectorate in Uganda, Right Hon. Joseph Chamberlain wanted to know the intentions of the government regarding the French expedition on the Nile. Sir William Harcourt severely rebuked Mr. Chamberlain's provocative language towards France, which, he said, was most dangerous to the world's peace. He denied that the government intended to extend control beyond Uganda.

MANY FORGERIES UNEARTHED.

A Sunday School Superintendent Captures a Hundred Thousand Dollars.

NEW YORK, June 14.—It has just been discovered that there are at least $100,000 of forged paper held by various New York banks upon which the indorsement is forged. The principal maker of the notes is the East River Silk company, a small concern located near Astoria. The treasurer of that concern, who committed the forgeries, was at one time an employe of Inman, Swan & Co. His name is Albert S. Moore, and he is now in custody.

Moore, who is 36 years old and a superintendent of a Harlem Sunday school, was formerly employed as a bookkeeper by Inman, Swan & Co., one of the largest cotton brokerage firms in the country. Last November he was discharged on account of some irregularities which were discovered in his books, but the members of the firm stated today that Moore was not accused of dishonesty. He is married and the father of four children. He moved in good society.

During his connection with the firm he was also the treasurer of the Astoria concern, and since last November, up to the present time, he still retained that position. The forged paper is nearly, if not all, connected with the silk company and bears the forged indorsements of Inman, Swan & Co., R. W. Swan, Jr., and John Menke, a commission agent.

Moore was arrested in the Cotton Exchange building and taken to the Tombs court. His counsel, E. S. Clinch, desired to waive an examination, but as the complainants were not in court Justice McMahon would not consent to this, and held Moore in $10,000 bail for his examination this afternoon. As he could not furnish this amount the prisoner was locked up in the Tombs prison. He refused to talk to reporters.

Decided Against Governor Matthews.

INDIANAPOLIS, June 14.—The supreme court affirmed the prison directors' case. It came up from Laporte county, where the circuit court decided against the governor in the contention over the appointing power in the matter of the selection of trustees for state prisons. The law of the last legislature delegated to a board of officers the right to appoint the directors. The governor refused to recognize the law, holding that the legislature might create an office, but had no power to fill it. The court holds against him in all the material allegations, and Charles Harley, warden of the northern prison, according to the board's selection, will succeed J. W. French. The case applies with equal force to the prison south, and the Republican nominee of the board will succeed Patten there.

The Suburban Handicap.

NEW YORK, June 14.—The Suburban handicap will be run at Sheepshead Bay tomorrow. An accident happened to Gideon & Daly's crack, Ramapo, during his work on Thursday, when he went a trial in 2.10½. It was noticed that he pulled up lame, and an examination showed that the horse had split one of his hoofs. Mr. Gideon said that he would probably not start Ramapo in the Suburban. However, the horse will be given another trial this evening, and upon that will depend the final decision. Bassetlaw was yesterday declared out, and this leaves but a bare half dozen to go. The probable starters are: Domino, Sir Walter, Declare, Herald and Lazzarone.

Our New Minister to Venezuela.

WASHINGTON, June 14.—The president has made the following appointments: Allen Thomas, consul at Laguayra, to be United States minister to Venezuela; Emory F. Best, of the District of Columbia, to be assistant commissioner at the general land office. The new minister to Venezuela is a Marylander by birth, and is about 55 years of age. He is a lawyer by profession, and a graduate of Princeton college. He served throughout the war in the Confederate army, attaining the rank of brigadier general.

No Monetary Conference.

BERLIN, June 14.—The National Zeitung yesterday said that replies have been received by the government from the majority of the federal government to the former's inquiry regarding the expediency of an international conference for the settlement of the currency question. It is added that, while several answers do not imply opposition to the proposal, not one of them manifests a real desire for a conference. The replies, it appears, generally indicates a conviction that such a meeting would be fruitless.

Ailsa Again Unfortunate.

SOUTHAMPTON, June 14.—Britannia and Ailsa started yesterday in a race for large yachts under the auspices of the Royal Southampton Yacht club. The course is forty-four miles long. Ailsa allowed Britannia 1 min. 42 secs. At the start Mr. Walker's yacht led the Prince of Wales' cutter by a few seconds. While Britannia was leading coming down the Solent Ailsa's jib split and she was compelled to abandon the race. Niagara did not race.

French Victory in Madagascar.

PARIS, June 14.—Advices received here from the Island of Madagascar say that the advance guard of the French expedition forced the passage of Betsiboka on June 9 and captured Mevatanamo, whereupon the Hovas retreated, when the French began shelling them. Only two French soldiers were wounded, but the troops are suffering from the climate. Colonel Gillon died recently of dysentery.

Legal Victory for Atlantic City.

ATLANTIC CITY, June 14.—Vice Chancellor Bird refused to issue the injunction applied for by Colonel James Brady to restrain the sale of the local water works to the city. The municipal government is now in full possession of the plant, and council will meet tonight to open bids for an issue of $775,000 of water bonds.

Consuls Appointed.

WASHINGTON, June 14.—The president has made the following consular appointments: James B. Caffin of Massachusetts, at St. Helena; Horatio R. Bigelow of Pennsylvania, at Rouen, France, and William E. Mantins of New York, at Turin, Italy.

One of Dink Wilson's Gang.

OMAHA, June 14.—Three men attempted to rob the safe of the Washington County bank, at Calhoun, near here, and then broke into the store of H. Rix, adjoining. The clerk was bound and gagged. The marshal and posse began a search, and were joined by the Omaha police. One man was caught with a kit of burglars' tools, and he was recognized by officers as Jim Elliott, a member of the famous Dink Wilson gang of safe robbers. Wilson was electrocuted in New York last year.

Forest Fires Still Raging.

BRADFORD, Pa., June 14.—Forest fires continue to destroy property in this region. News comes from Simpson that the flames were dangerously near to the oil wells of Urquhart & Lavens, and that it would be difficult to save the property from destruction. A force of 150 men had a hard fight with the fire near Lafayette Corners. Another fire, near Taintor, destroyed a large quantity of wood for Hamlin & Knowles. Fires are reported from various other sections.

Subscribing for Collins' Defense.

TRENTON, June 14.—The colored people of Trenton and Princeton are raising money by subscription for the defense of Collins, the negro murderer of Student Frederick Ohl, of Princeton seminary. The infirmary physicians report that Cochran, the other victim of the shooting, is slowly improving.

Hal Pointer and Mascot Matched.

BUFFALO, June 14.—Hal Pointer, 2.04½, owned by the Village Farm, and Mascot, 2.04, owned by W. P. Taylor, will pace two races, best three heats in five, at the grand circuit meeting in August for $2,000 a side each race.

Payn's American Duel.

James Payn, the English writer, tells this story of the "American plan" of dueling, wherein the two duelists, with one second, meet within doors and draw lots for who shall shoot himself: On a recent occasion, A and B, having had a "difficulty," A was the unlucky man, and retired for the purpose of self destruction into the next apartment. B and the second, both very much moved by the tragedy of the situation, remained in listening attitudes. At last the pistol was heard; they shuddered with emotion and remorse, when suddenly in rushed the supposed dead man, triumphantly exclaiming, "Missed!"

Elevator Wit.

The elevator boy in the big flat was airing his views to a passenger on the proper conduct of children.

"What do you know about it?" laughed the passenger. "You're not married, are you?"

"Well, no," replied the boy, "but I've brought up a good many families in my time," and then he gazed up the elevator shaft with a rapturous expression.—Detroit Free Press.

Tennyson.

Tennyson would not talk about his poetry, but once intimated that he regarded the "Ode on the Death of the Duke of Wellington" as containing more inspiration than some of the others. He once said that he did not expect much of the "Charge of the Light Brigade" and was agreeably surprised at its reception.

Discussing It at Some Length.

"Maria," said Mr. Billus, looking at the clock and yawning, "is that tall, slender young Hankinson still coming to see Bessie?"

"He is," answered Mrs. Billus.

"Acts as if he had a—h'm—lean on the premises, doesn't he?"

"He seems to—h'm—long for her society."

Mr. Billus looked at his wife out of the corner of his eye, but she appeared serene and unconscious, and he tried it again.

"Prospect of a—a lengthy courtship, do you think?"

"I think the prospect is decidedly—ah—slim."

There was a protracted pause, and then Mr. Billus asked in a casual way:

"Does he move in the—aw—upper circles?"

"He is—aw—highly connected," responded Mrs. Billus severely.

And he went to the door, looked out, remarked that the wind was due north and believed it was going to be colder and went softly up stairs to bed.—Chicago Tribune.

A Dramatic Triumph at Last.

Lobbylounger—How was the play last night?

Fustnirer—Wonderful! Most artistic and dramatic production seen in years. Held the audience spellbound from first to last. Why, sir, in some of the thrilling situations there were times when not a sound could be heard but the hard breathing of Othello, the suppressed sobs of Desdemona and the conversation in the boxes. —New York Weekly

A False Diagnosis.

La Grippe is confounded by many persons with a severe attack of catarrh, which in some respects resembles the former. These individuals suffer severely with pain about the head, eyes and ears, with soreness in throat and stoppage of the nasal passages, and in fact, a re incapacitated for work of any kind for days at a time. These are catarrhal sufferers. Ely's Cream Balm has been used with the best results in such cases. The remedy will give instant relief.

Narcoti-Cure

Cures the Tobacco Habit in 4 to 10 Days or Money Refunded.

Use All the Tobacco You Want Till Your "Craving" is Gone.

NARCOTI CURE is the only remedy in the world that acts directly on the nerves and drives the nicotine from the system in from four to ten days. It leaves the patient in better health than before taking, and is warranted free from any injurious ingredients.

NARCOTI-CURE is popular because it allows the patient to use all the tobacco he wants while under treatment, or until the "craving" and "hankering" are gone. It is then no sacrifice to throw away tobacco forever.

NARCOTI-CURE is sold at the uniform price of $5 a bottle, and one bottle cures.

Money refunded if a cure is not effected when taken according to directions.

THE NARCOTI CHEMICAL CO.,
Springfield, Mass.

Gentlemen: Replying to yours of the 1st, would say that I have used tobacco for 46 years, and of late have consumed a 10 cent plug a day, besides smoking considerably. I commenced to use tobacco when I was only 11 years old, and have never been able to give up the habit until I took NARCOTI CURE, although I have tried other so called remedies without effect. After using your remedy four days, all "hankering" for chewing disappeared, and in four days more smoking became unpleasant. I have no further desire for the weed, and experienced no bad effects whatever. I am gaining in flesh, and feel better than I have for a long time. To all who wish to be free from the tobacco habit I would say, use NARCOTI CURE.

Yours truly, W. N. WHITE.

FRIDAY, JUNE 14, 1895.

A carload of new wheat from southwestern Missouri, the first of the new crop to arrive was sold, yesterday, in St. Louis, for a dollar a bushel.

Mayor Strong's opinion of the bill transferring New York's insane to State care has not changed and he says that even if the bill is returned to him he does not think he will approve of it. At Albany every possible argument is being used to convince Gov. Morton that he can sign the bill even without the Mayor's approval.

To-day is the birthday of the stars and stripes. One hundred and eighteen years ago, June 14th, 1777, the American Congress passed this resolution:

Resolved, That the flag of the thirteen United States be thirteen stripes, alternate red and white, that the Union be thirteen stars, white in a blue field, representing a new constitution.

The Republicans in Ulster county's Board of Supervisors, in deference to the wishes of the Democratic members, decided to divide the county on the old lines and the apportionment was made by a unanimous vote. As the districts are, each party has a fighting chance in each district. The fairness and decency of Ulster's Republican Supervisors is in most refreshing contrast with the grab-all policy of the boss-ridden Republicans who misrepresent the people of Orange county.

The Memphis free silver convention refused to lend itself to the Populist scheme of disrupting the Democratic party. Senator Harris, of Tennessee, and Senator Jones, of Arkansas, members of the Committee on Resolutions, defeated in committee a resolution declaring for the disruption of the old parties in case they should not declare for silver. They also killed another resolution calling on the National Democratic Committee to call a convention this year to commit the party to a financial policy in 1896. On the convention floor ex-Congressman, "Private" John Allen, of Mississippi, aroused the wildest enthusiasm by an earnest appeal to Southern delegates to stand by the Democratic party and its traditions and to refuse to go into any other organization.

The ARGUS is in receipt of an invitation from the Tammany Society or Columbian Order to attend its celebration of the Fourth of July. For 119 years the Tammany Society has celebrated our country's birthday with simple but impressive services, renewing in the most solemn manner its "pledges of devotion to the principles for which our fathers fought and for whose maintenance this Columbian Order was established." The history of Tammany is long and honorable. It has always been active in every effort to advance the cause of Democracy, has numbered among its members the most illustrious names in the annals of our statesmanship, and is ready now, as always during its history, to do battle in defense of popular rights. Tammany has made mistakes, for which it has atoned in fullest measure, and they count as nothing in comparison with its manifold services to the people, to Democracy, to the State and the nation.

BOB HUNTING'S CIRCUS

The Great Show That Will Be Here Saturday.

Bob Hunting brings with him from Great Britain, the land of such clowns as Wallet, Swan, Adams, Grimaldi and Cook, a record to make every fun-loving American proud of him.

The Manchester Guardian says: "Listen to Bob Hunting at Sanger's Circus Royal, and begone dull care."

The Cork Advertiser says: "At the Circus we saw and heard an Irish-American Clown Bob Hunting. He makes one's sides ach, but his wit is a tonic."

The Dundee Star says: "At the Royal Amphi-theatre, nothing so enjoyable as Bob Hunting's Burns-like witticisms."

A Boiler Explodes in a Fall River Factory With Most Shocking Results.

BY UNITED PRESS.

FALL RIVER, Mass., June 14—A boiler explosion occurred, this morning, in the loom harness factory of Henry Langley Stafford. The police report thirty killed or injured. Seven dead bodies have been taken from the ruins.

The building was a two story frame structure, and it was blown to pieces. Forty-five persons were at work in it at the time, and only nine are accounted for. Fire followed the explosion, and after the flames were extinguished a woman's body was the first recovered. A majority of the employes were women.

Four bodies had been recovered up to 11 o'clock, Leslie Horton, Adele Dubex, Robert Murray and an unidentified man. Thomas Bury and an unknown man were probably fatally injured. The engineer says the boiler had not been inspected for years. The flames have been completely extinguished, and the work of searching the ruins for missing people is in progress. Great excitement prevails in the vicinity.

Tired Women

Should stop and consider the dangers which threaten them because of their weakness, languor and lack of ambition. Thousands of women find their strength unequal to the demands of duty. And yet there is no escape from the incessant round of care and toil. They must have strength. How shall it be given? By building up their systems through purified, enriched and vitalized blood. Hood's Sarsaparilla will give them strength because it will make their blood pure and enable it to feed the nerves upon proper nourishment. It will create an appetite, tone the stomach and invigorate every organ. It is what tired women need.

Hood's Sarsaparilla Is the Only True Blood Purifier

Prominently in the public eye today. It feeds the nerves on pure blood.

A NE'ER DO WELL'S TRAGIC END.

Murder and Suicide End the Career of William Bowne, a Former Resident of Pine Bush—Murder of His Brother-in-Law—Details of the Tragedy.

A brief dispatch to the ARGUS yesterday, stated that Wm. Bowne had shot his brother-in law in the latter's saloon in Waterbury, Conn., and had then killed himself.

The William Bowne referred to was a son of Mr. John Bowne, a lumber merchant in Pine Bush, this county, who deals principally in ship timber. He has lived in Waterbury for several years. He married a Miss Harvey in that place. They had two children. They have not lived together for some time. Bowne was a ne'er do well. He drank to excess and when in his cups was abusive. He had had some trouble with his wife's brothers on account of his treatment of her.

He came to Pine Bush last fall and worked for his father at Red Mills, for several months.

He went on several sprees while here and on one occasion got into trouble in Ellenville and his father had to help him out.

One night Bowne came from Red Mills and entering his father's residence took $40 from his pockets and left the neighborhood, and nothing more was heard of him until the tragedy, yesterday.

The details of the tragedy as given in dispatches to the New York papers, this morning, are as follows: Bowne has been drinking heavily of late. He was intoxicated early yesterday morning at Naugatuck, when he said he was going to commit suicide. He took a car to Waterbury, stole a revolver and entered Harvey's saloon. William was the only one present and he was eating a plate of soup in a rear room. Bowne walked in and said: "Your time has come." He then fired three shots, one of which missed Harvey, the ball burying itself in the wall. The second shot struck Harvey in the head and he fell to the floor. Bowne fired the last shot into his own temple and fell dead. Harvey died a few minutes afterward.

Mr. John Bowne was notified of the suicide and left Pine Bush for Waterbury, this morning. It is probable he will bring the body home for burial.

Mr. Bowne has another son in the State Hospital in this city. He was sent by the court from Goshen, where he got into some trouble and was adjudged insane.

NO BONDS FOR SCHOOL HOUSES.

No Escape From the Constitutional Limit on Bonded Indebteness of Cities—Direct Tax For School Purposes Inevitable—Why Not Use the Excise Fund?

The article in last night's ARGUS pointing out the fact that the city was already bonded to the constitutional limit and that it could not legally issue bonds for school building purposes, attracted much attention and caused no little discussion.

There is no doubt that a serious problem confronts the city. The Academy building is unsafe and has been condemned by builders and architects. The ward schools are overcrowded. Increased school accommodations must be provided, and there seems no way out of the dilemma except to raise by tax such money as is absolutely necessary to increase our school accommodations.

The bonding act passed last winter is all right in every respect, but must remain inoperative until such time as the assessed valuation of the city is greatly increased or part of the existing indebtedness of the city retired.

If we cannot bond for new school houses we cannot bond for a city hall, and there seems therefore no particular use in piling up the excise fund in the hands of the Charity Commissioners.

Cannot a way be found to transfer this big excise fund from the Charity Commissioners, in whose hands it is doing no good, to the Board of Education, which needs it badly, and which would put it to good use?

Haydn's Creation to Be Sung at Warwick, to-night.

Haydn's oratorio, "The Creation," will be given at Warwick, to-night, by the Warwick Vocal Society, assisted by the Goshen Vocal Society and Messrs. Z. K. Greene, O. J. J. Werley, J. W. Marvin, W. W. JUDAS MACCABAEUS.

HANDEL'S ORATORIO AT THE FIRST CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH.

The Middletown Oratorio Society and the Goshen Vocal Society Give a Fine Concert The Soloists Acquit Themselves Creditably and the Choruses Admirably Rendered.

It has been a long time since Middletowners have had the opportunity to hear as fine a concert as was given at the First Congregational Church, last evening, but we regret to say that our people did not show the interest they should, for the audience was not as large as such a performance merited. It was an appreciative one, however, and expressed its pleasure by frequent and vigorous applause.

The entertainment was given by the Middletown Oratorio Society, assisted by the Goshen Vocal Society, one of the best musical organizations in this part of the State.

Handel's oratorio, Judas Maccabæus, was rendered, with Rev. R. B. Clark as conductor. Mr. Wm. Wall Whiddit, Jr, organist of the Goshen Presbyterian Church, presided at the the organ and the orchestra of the Philharmonic Club, of New York—twelve pieces—accompanied the singers.

The soloists were Miss Katherine Hilke, soprano; Miss Margaret M. Leverich, alto; Mr. George E. De-Voll, tenor and Mr. George H. Wiseman, bass.

The solos were all well rendered, but the singing of Mr. Wiseman and Miss Leverich was especially pleasing to the audience.

It would be difficult to improve upon the singing of the choruses. Under the thorough training of Mr. Clark the singers had mastered this most difficult work. They sang in correct time and responded promptly to every stroke of the baton. There was not a discordant note and the parts were nicely balanced.

It was a treat indeed to all lovers of classical music fortunate enough to be present, such an one as they are not likely to enjoy soon again in Middletown at least. From a musical standpoint the entertainment was a decided success; financially, however, we are sorry to say, it was as decided a failure.

AN ESTRANGED COUPLE REUNITED

Judge Powelson Exercises His Good Offices and Brings Together Husband and Wife Who Separated Many Months Ago.

A man and little boy arrived in this city, last night, from the West and stopped at one of the hotels. The man gave it out that the object of his visit here was to begin proceedings for a divorce from his wife.

It appears that his wife also came here on the same business and consulted Judge Powelson, who again demonstrated his right to the title of the great peacemaker. He brought the woman to the hotel at which her husband was stopping, and after getting them and their little boy together in a room gave them some good advice and stepped out.

When the bell rang for dinner husband, wife and son entered the dining room together and were apparently the happiest guests at the table.

It was afterwards learned that just as Judge Powelson expected the couple settled their little differences and decided to commence life over again.

The man is a physician and lived with his family at Asbury Park. Nine months ago he and his wife separated, he taking the little boy and she the girl. He went to South Dakota and she remained at Asbury Park.

This morning, when the party met at the hotel, the mother attempted to caress the little boy, but he refused to recognize her.

She said to him: "Why, I'm your mother,'

"No, you're not," said the little fellow, "papa says my mother is dead," and he would not be convinced to the contrary until after the reconciliation.

The couple left town, this afternoon, for Asbury Park, where the doctor will try to regain the practice he once enjoyed, and which he lost by his removal to Dakota.

It is but justice to the doctor to say that before leaving the hotel he assumed the blame for the separation.

Observance of Flag Day in Middletown.

Flag Day has been very informally observed in this city. A few flags have been displayed from private and public buildings and at the school houses and at some of the schools exercises appropriate to the day were held. Mr. J. J. Burcle, who never allows any occasion for the display of patriotism to pass unnoticed, decorated himself and many of his friends with knots of red, white and ribbon, and many, catching the idea from him, went about with small flags in their button holes.

SUGGESTION TO RELIGIOUS WORKERS

Instead of Condemning the Operation of the Electric Roads and Opening of Midway Park on Sundays Utilize Them for Doing Religious Work.

While the Y. P. S. C. E. and others interested in religious work are engaged in passing resolutions condemnatory of the Middletown and Newburgh electric railway companies and Midway Park, it never seems to have occurred to any of them that instead of condemning popular institutions, much more good could be accomplished by making use of them for carrying on religious work.

We know the Middletown-Goshen Traction Co. will heartily co-operate with them by aiding them in every way possible if they wish to hold religious services on Sunday afternoon at Midway Park.

There are many people who would be glad of an opportunity to attend such services and at the same time enjoy the pleasure and benefit to be derived from a ride in the summer cars to and from Midway Park.

Aside from the satisfaction such services would afford to regular attendants at church, the opportunity for those really desirous of doing good to reach many who never darken a church door would be had and seed might be sown that would bring forth an abundance of fruit.

The devil never loses an opportunity to utilize every available means to carry on his work and why should not those who profess to work for good be as progressive as he and keep up with the procession by making the trolley cars and Midway Park the means of carrying the gospel to many who cannot be reached in any other way?

BOARD OF HEALTH.

Any offense against this order will subject the person or persons so doing to the penalty of the statutes made and provided governing the same.

THE DAFFODILS.

And then my heart with pleasure fills
And dances with the daffodils.
—Wordsworth.

Oh, the laughter of the lilies in the sun!
Purer joy and deeper gladness there is none;
When they hear my lady's feet,
As she hastes the sun to greet,
How they shake with golden laughter every one!
Oh, the laughing—oh, the dancing daffodils!
Shaking in the breeze
Under budding trees
By the lake that lies below the silent hills.

Oh, the trooping of the lilies on the sward
Golden trumpet, saffron surcoat, spear and sword;
Knight and squire with waving crest,
Waiting for my lady's best,
To achieve some daring deed she may applaud.
Oh, the laughter—oh, the dancing daffodils!
Shaking in the breeze
Under budding trees
By the lake that lies below the silent hills.

Oh, the silence of the lilies as they pray,
When the night mist steals up softly from the bay,
And my lady's name is there,
In the solemn vesper prayer,
As the twilight on the hillside dies away!
Oh, the laughing—oh, the dancing daffodils
Shaking in the breeze
Under budding trees
By the lake that lies below the silent hills
—T. Bruce Dilks in Temple Bar.

THE SPIDER'S WEB.

Rosy complexioned and in her fresh spring toilet, she was truly beautiful. Under her long silky lashes her azure eyes had a soft caressing light that illumined her face with kindliness. The form, though somewhat slender, was well modeled, and the lines of the neck set off all the attractiveness of a head encircled by a profusion of blond locks.

This was the beautiful and graceful Paoletta, Giorgio's young wife. In a carriage the newly wedded pair were proceeding rapidly along the sun filled river bank, thinking of some way of employing the day.

The carriage paused to allow them to admire the flowers upon a spur of the incline, where the vines, like wild nests, stretched from distance to distance, half concealed by the trees.

"Do you wish to go up there?" asked Paoletta.

She pointed with her delicate hand, from which she had drawn her glove, to the heights of Bellevue.

"For what?" Giorgio asked.

"We might see a house that would suit us—you know we ought to be looking for one," said Paoletta. "We can inquire at the inn."

Giorgio hesitated.

"What of our journey to St. Cloud?" he asked.

"Let it be postponed for awhile."

He did not answer immediately. Finally he said half reluctantly: "As you will. It really makes no difference where we live so long as we are together."

She looked at him brightly, and they descended from the carriage and took their way toward the bank of the Seine. The inn was deserted.

"Let us mount into that little balcony," she said. "There is a fine view from there."

"As you please."

Soon the sun shone less brightly, for a space shone pallid, then vanished. Great clouds heaped themselves up about them, rapid and compact. A strong wind blew, and large drops of water began to fall.

Where should they take refuge?

"There!" said Paoletta.

With her hand she indicated a cottage, upon the threshold of which an old woman stood.

Giorgio suddenly blushed crimson, but accompanied his wife in silence.

"It is for rent; it can be looked over," said the woman, who hoped to find tenants in this handsome young couple.

Giorgio did not respond, but while Paoletta examined the apartments he regarded with interest this slight, box-like construction, so simply made.

As soon as his wife called him he entered the house. A vision of the past rose in his mind. He saw the garden, the arbor, the honeysuckle and ivy, now nothing more than a mass of green foliage, under which was hidden a little bench covered with moss and gone to decay. A marble dove, blackened by moisture, had been for long years the sole spectator of this devastation.

"It is ten years since the house was left tenantless," prattled the old woman. "The proprietor, who was eccentric, did not wish to let it. But now he is dead, and I have been directed to have a card put up. The necessary repairs will be made."

Paoletta laughed aloud with happy, childlike pleasure.

"Are you willing to rent this house, Giorgio?" she asked.

"The air might be too bracing for you, my dear."

"But not more so than everywhere in the country," put in the old woman. "Besides, the rent is so little—100 francs a year."

"It is very reasonable," said Paoletta. "I shall be delighted to live here. Come, let us visit the rooms. I am charmed with the whole place."

He followed her, examined some apartments decorated with gray paper and red flowers, looked into the dining hall with windows looking upon the Seine, and as he glanced about all the past returned to his memory. No longer was it Paoletta who was before him, but Chiara, the girl he had first loved, and whom he had often seen seated in this little hermitage, to which he had by chance returned.

He had lost her while the cup of love was still full. But he forgot her in time and married the pretty Paoletta, whom he loved. Yet frequently when with her a shadow passed before him—the shadow of a young and lovely woman.

A week later found them settled in the cottage. The outdoor life was a great benefit to Paoletta, who had been something of an invalid. It was arranged that they should pass the winter in the country.

Every day Giorgio went to business in the city, leaving Paoletta alone. The young wife, busy with her new cares, was happy and contented. She adored music and played a great deal in her hours of solitude.

By and by she noticed that a large spider came out of his lurking place to listen to her. Joined by a long and slender thread to the back of a mirror, he got himself well in evidence upon a decorated cornice, with his keen eyes, his long legs and remained immovable, as if hypnotized by the soft harmonies of Chopin.

Paoletta gradually ceased to fear him. But when to this great spider were added several others she resolved to remove this large family, domesticated no doubt for a number of years. She called in a carpenter to take down the mirror, laughing to see the tribe scampering.

Suddenly she uttered a cry of surprise. Wrapped up as in a net, invested with a great mass of cobwebs, a letter sealed with black fell from behind the mirror.

The workman, no less surprised than the young lady, presented the letter to Paoletta, who took it, trembling. On the outside she read:

"To be delivered to Signor Giorgio Dorval after my death."

The young wife's heart beat fast. This letter was directed to her husband. What could it contain?

"It must have been written a long time ago," said the workman.

"It is directed to my husband," responded Paoletta. The man smiled musingly.

"A letter from a woman," he thought.

Should she burn this letter unopened? What might it contain? Should she give it to Giorgio?

No, no; certainly not.

After a long time she broke the seal, and this is what she read:

"My dear Giorgio, I am sick and sad. The house is a prison. I seem to find in it something tragical, leading to revenge and death.

"Although it is ended, completely ended, do not doubt but we shall see each other again. Is our love to endure but one season? Do you not remember your oath of eternal fidelity?

"I have not forgotten and have returned to our nest. Now I would like to die, surrounded by the things you care for.

"I have re-covered this room, filled with tokens of your love. That reclining chair has seated you frequently, when, returning from a long excursion in the woods, I came to rest my head against your knees, while you touched the brown locks which fell over my forehead. I have reviewed all that year of happiness day by day and only desire to die in this house where you and I have loved."

Paoletta gave a loud cry and fell to the floor. When she returned to her senses, the sun had set, the day was slowly departing, the horizon, tinted with purple, forming a luminous garland. Nothing was changed in the life of the world about her. There was the same azure sky, the same strident shriek of the railway train, the hilarious shouts of the children released from school.

Was what had passed a dream, some strange fancy? No, the letter was there at her feet. It recalled her to reality. It was true—all was true! And suddenly she felt within her heart an enormous weight, and upon her shoulders something laid almost insupportable.

She remained for a long time motionless and silent, making a thousand projects. Then gradually her nerves gave way and tears flowed from her eyes.

When Giorgio returned, he found her calm, but a little nervous.

Several days passed, then Paoletta took to her bed.

A malady which had not been able to carry her to the tomb a year before reappeared. The physician announced that all was over; she would not outlast the fall of the leaves.

She treated Giorgio with coldness, of which she gave no explanation. He attended her, watched over her, supplicated her to tell him why she had changed, but she remained silent, and her calmness made him almost insane.

One morning she said to him, "You will return early today, will you not, Giorgio?"

He bent over her, kissing her tenderly.

"Yes, my darling," he said.

That evening, when he returned, she was dead. She held in her rigid hands a letter—the letter of Chiara. In pencil she had added these words:

"I am jealous of this woman, and of jealousy die. Adieu, Giorgio!"—From the Italian.

DON'T STOP TOBACCO

It is Injurious To Stop Suddenly

And don't be imposed upon by buying a remedy that requires you to do so, as it is nothing more than a substitute. In the sudden stoppage of the use of tobacco you must have some stimulant, and in most all cases, the effect of the stimulant, be it opium, morphine, or other opiates, leaves a far worse habit contracted. Ask your druggist about "BACO-CURO." It is purely vegetable. You do not have to stop using tobacco with "BACO-CURO." It will notify you when to stop and your desire for tobacco will cease. Your system will be as free from nicotine as the day before you took your first chew or smoke. An ironclad written guarantee to absolutely cure the tobacco habit in all its forms, or money refunded.

Dear Sirs—I have been a tobacco fiend for many years, and during the past two years have smoked fifteen to twenty cigars regularly every day. My whole nervous system became affected, until my physician told me I must give up the use of tobacco for the time being at least. I tried the so-called "Keeley Cure," "No-To-Bac," and various other remedies, but without success, until I accidentally learned of your "Baco-Curo." Three weeks ago to-day I commenced using your preparation, and to-day I consider myself completely cured. I am in perfect health, and the horrible craving for tobacco, which every inveterate smoker fully appreciates, has completely left me. I consider your "Baco-Curo" simply wonderful, and can fully recommend it.

Yours very truly, C. W. HORNICH.

Dear Sirs—I have been a user to no end for thirty-three year and during the past two years have used chewing tobacco very extensively. My nervous system became affected considerable. I have often tried to give up the use of tobacco, but always failed, until I bought three boxes of your "Baco-Curo." I used tobacco at the same time while taking "Baco-Curo," and after a week I lost the appetite for tobacco—smoking or chewing. I am enjoying better health, and consider your "Baco-Curo" the safest, most harmless and reliable remedy for to break the tobacco habit.

Yours truly, JOHN RODDEN,

Gentlemen—Last summer I furnished Mr James Reid of the town of Burnside, Trempealeau Co., with three boxes of your "Baco-Curo." He had chewed tobacco for over forty years and the last year used over sixty-five pounds. He commenced using "Baco-Curo" and one box did not have the effect, when he had used about one-half of the second box, he began to lose his taste for tobacco, and when he had used one-half of the third box he had lost all his appetite for it, and is now entirely cured.

Yours truly, J. C. TAYLOR, Druggist

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN.

This is to certify that I, William S Sawyer of Atlantic, County of Cass, State of Iowa, having been an inveterate smoker of tobacco, bought three boxes of "Baco-Curo" Dec. 21, 1894. Began taking same according to directions and can say that I am completely cured of the tobacco habit. "Baco-Curo" is simply wonderful and I recommend it to all who are slaves to the tobacco habit and wish to be cured. I am in perfect health and have not felt so well in years. That terrible craving, which every tobacco user has more or less, has completely disappeared and I feel like a new man, hoping that this may do some one good and lead them to try this wonderful remedy, "Baco-Curo," I remain. Yours truly,

WM. S. SAWYER, Atlantic, Iowa.

Gentlemen—For forty years I used tobacco in all its forms. For twenty-five years of that time I was a great sufferer from general debility and heart disease. For fifteen years I tried to quit, but couldn't. I took various remedies, among others "No-To-Bac," "The Indian Tobacco Antidote," "Double Chloride of Gold," etc., etc., but none of them did me the least bit of good. Finally, however, I purchased a box of your "Baco-Curo" and it has entirely cured me of the habit in all its forms, and I have increased thirty pounds in weight and am relieved from all the numerous aches and pains of body and mind. I could write a quire of paper upon my changed feelings and condition.

Yours respectfully, P. L. MARBURY,
Pastor C. P. Church, Clayton, Ark.

WHAT MR. KRAEMER SAYS OF "BACO-CURO."

ATLANTIC, Iowa, Feb. 4, 1895.

This is to certify that I, F. D. Kraemer, of Atlantic, Iowa, was an inveterate smoker of cigarettes for more than two years.

About eight weeks ago I bought three boxes of "Baco-Curo" I began taking it according to directions, and after taking one and one-half boxes, all the desire for cigarettes left me, and I have had no desire since.

I can heartily recommend "Baco-Curo" to all who are slaves to the cigarette habit or tobacco habit in any form, and are in search of a cure. I had become so under the influence of cigarettes, I could not remember anything; could not study, unless under the influence of the drug, which is death in the end, if kept up.

Cigarettes are sapping the lives out of more boys and young men to-day, than anything that is known to the world. Boys, before it is too late get some of this remedy that killed the craving for cigarettes in me and save your young life. Restore yourself to manhood. You will feel as though you had escaped an awful doom, and you have, when cured by "Baco-Curo," for you feel like a new being. I never felt better in all my life than at this present writing. I did not know what was the matter with me, until informed by the agent. He told me what was the reason. I could not do anything unless under the influence of the death-dealing poison found in cigarettes. I did not believe him at first, until he explained the action on the system. Then, sought the goods and thank God and all concerned, I am a sound person to-day. Hoping that this may reach the unfortunate cigarette smoker, I remain, Yours respectfully,

F. D. KRAEMER.

Breaking It Gently.

He was digging rock in a phosphate mine on the Ten Mile hill, near Charleston, and I was assistant superintendent of the place. One day after the hands had knocked off he said to me:

"Boss, is you know how fur rite one letter?"

I assured him that my education had extended that far and asked to whom he wished to write.

"To my bredder," said he.

"And where is your brother?"

"He am ben de penitentiary."

"For what?"

"He kill one man."

"Oh, he murdered some one?"

"He ain't murder no one. He slaughter 'em."

"Ah, manslaughter!"

"Dat's de way. Will you please rite one letter to 'em an arx how he do? He name Gus Pritchard."

"How is that, when you are his brother, and your name is Robinson?

"Oh, dat's all right. Befo' de wah nigger been hab only one name, same like de people ben de Bible, en so dey tek dere massa name fur dere fass name."

"Very well, I'll write to inquire about Pritchard."

I wrote to the superintendent of the penitentiary in Columbia and was informed that Pritchard had been dead for several months. I did not like to tell the news in person to Robinson, so I asked George Washington to do so, and I endeavored to impress upon George the necessity of breaking the news gently.

"Oh, I know wha' you mean," said George, "I know. All right, sah."

On the following day I asked George whether he had broken the news to Robinson, and he replied:

"Oh, yes, sah. I tell 'em ben de way wha' you say I muss. Fuss I say, 'Sambo, enty you got one bredder?' En he say, 'Yes.' Den I say, 'Enty you bredder am ben de penitentiary?' En he say, 'Yes,' again. Den I say, 'He dead.'"

"Good gracious, man! Do you call that breaking the news gently? What did Robinson say?"

"Sambo say: 'Oh, den he am dead! But wuffer you tell me 'bout 'em ben sich a roun'about way?'"—New York Sun.

A Good Deal of Inference.

The other day a citizen called at the stamp window of the postoffice and laid two pennies on the shelf. The clerk looked at him for ten seconds and then queried:

"Two ones?"

"No, of course not! When a man lays down 2 cents, he wants a 2 cent stamp, of course."

"Not always."

"But that's the inference. After this when you see two pennies down here you can infer that a 2 cent stamp is wanted."

Next day the same man called and put down a $10 bill, and before he could speak the clerk shoved it back to him with the remark

"The government doesn't issue any."

"Any what?"

"Any two cent stamps. Sorry I can't accommodate you."

"Who asked for a two cent stamp?"

"You did. Whenever a man lays down a $10 bill, the inference is that he wants one of those stamps, but, as I said, they are not issued."

The man picked up his bill and walked out with a red face, but five minutes later returned and dropped a cigar on the shelf and good naturedly queried:

"And what do you infer from that?"

"Smoke—shake!" replied the clerk, and the two became friends.—Detroit Free Press.

I had been doctoring constantly with no relief. I bought one bottle of South American Nervine, which did me more good than any $50 worth of doctoring I ever did in my life. I would advise every weakly person to use this valuable and lovely medicine; a few bottles of it have cured me completely. I consider it the grandest medicine in the world." His Diploma.

"You began practice in Arkansas, did you not, doctor?"

"Yes," replied the physician, "I did. I would have got along all right if it had not been for my diploma. It occurred to one of the natives to ask what it was. 'My diploma,' I answered, 'is from one of the best schools in the country.'

"'Ye don't mean to tell me,' said the old man, 'that ye had to go to school to larn yo' trade, do ye?'

"'Certainly,' said I.

"'That is enough fer me,' said the old man. 'Any feller that hain't got no more natural sense that he has to go to school to larn to be a doctor, and him a grown man, ain't no man fer me,' and he jammed his hands into his pockets and walked out. I staid six weeks more and gave it up."—Indianapolis Journal.

OBITUARY.

Robert Coe.

Robert, the seventeen-year-old son of Mr. Frank Coe, a farmer residing near Pine Bush, died in Jacksonville, Fla., Monday, of inflammation of the bowels.

His father was first notified of his illness on Sunday, and on Monday received a dispatch announcing his death. He started for Jacksonville at once and brought the body home. It arrived by rail, yesterday, at Wallkill, and was taken to the family residence.

The funeral will take place Saturday, at 11 o'clock, at the M. E. Church in Pine Bush. The burial will be in Walden.

Mrs John Dwyer

From the Port Jervis Gazette.

Mrs. Jane Dwyer, wife of John Dwyer, of Middletown, died at 3 30 o'clock on Wednesday afternoon, at the home of her mother, Mrs. Micheal Whalen, 124 Jersey avenue, this village. Mrs. Dwyer was taken ill with a severe cold in the throat while at home in Middletown in November last. Her lungs gradually became affected and her condition accordingly became worse.

In December, she returned to the home of her mother in Port Jervis, where she had been confined to her bed during the past two weeks. Her critical condition was thoroughly realized but her death was not entirely expected when it came.

Mrs. Dwyer's maiden name was Whalen. She was born in Montague, Sussex county, N. J., on January 4 1869 and removed with her parents to this village when a young girl. In November 1887, she was united in marriage to John Dwyer, by whom with one son, William, aged six years, she is survived. She resided in this village for two years following her marriage, and has resided in Middletown for five years where her husband is employed as flagman on the Ontario and Western railroad.

Besides her husband and one son, William, she is also survived by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Whalen, of this village, and brothers and sisters as follows. James, of Port Jervis; Maurice and John, of Waterbury, Conn.; Rose and Julia, of Port Jervis, and Annie, of Waterbury Conn.

Her funeral will be held on Saturday morning at 10 o'clock from the residence of her mother, Mrs. Michael Whalen, 124 Jersey avenue and at 10.30 o'clock from St. Mary's church, where requiem high mass will be celebrated.

Interment will be made in St. Mary's cemetery.

Mrs. Harriet Babcock.

Mrs. Harriet Babcock died at her home in Port Jervis, Wednesday afternoon. Several years ago she fell and broke her hip and owing to her advanced age she never fully recovered. She was eighty years old when she died.

She is survived by the following children:

Charles Babcock, of Rockland, N. Y.; Mrs. Louisa Hill, of Port Jervis; Mrs. Elizabeth Cremer, of Amity, Mrs. Mary Hall, of Monroe; Mrs Radial Hall, of Hoboken; Mrs Catherine Rysdick, of Finchville; Mrs. Susan Kniffin, of Unionville, Mrs. Hattie Lodge, of Atlantic City and James Babcock, of Port Jervis.

Endorses Sells Brothers' Circus

Mr. J. H. Wallick arrived in town yesterday morning, and seeing the posters of Sells Brothers' circus said to a reporter of the ARGUS "You can say to your readers that it is the best and squarest show on the road, excepting none." This is high praise indeed.

Fourth of July at Pine Bush

A Fatal Kick

Samuel White, a young married man, living in Delaware county, a few miles from Turnwood, went out Thursday of last week, to catch a horse which was running in a field. The animal turned and kicked him in the head, inflicting injuries from which he died in three hours.

Mrs. S. J. Ednie, of 678 McDonough street, Brooklyn, N. I have been using Hood's Pills for some time, and recommend them as a safe and reliable medicine."

Hood's Pills cure all liver ills.

WELCOME RAIN

The Skies Weep Most Opportunely.

It was a most welcome rain that fell yesterday upon the parched earth, hereabouts. There was enough of it to save garden "sass," help field corn and oats, and to freshen meadows. As to upland grasses they had gone into the sere and yellow leaf and were practically past remedy. East of us and west, and for that matter, all roundabout us, much more rain fell than we enjoyed, for which, however, we repine not, but give thanks for what we received.

"SYRIAN LIFE"

An Interesting Paper Read Before the Ladies' Missionary Societies.

The Ladies' Missionary Societies of the First and Second Presbyterian Churches held a union meeting at the residence of Dr. Gordon, on Highland avenue, yesterday afternoon. An interesting paper on "Syrian Life" was read by Miss E. C. Holmes, who was introduced by the President of the society of the First Presbyterian Church, Mrs. D. L Prime. A solo was sung by Mrs. H. L. Adams, and Mrs. C. H. Sweezy and Mrs. H. K. Wilcox sang a duet. At the conclusion of the meeting refreshments were served.

An Engagement Announced.

About twenty relatives and friends were in attendance at a dinner and tea party given, yesterday by Mrs. Wm. C Carpenter at her residence, No. 119 East Main street. During the evening singing and speech making took place, after which the engagement was announced of Mr. Robert W. Lindsay, a member of Phœnix EngineCo and in the employ of the Skidmore Mercantile Co. as shipping clerk, and Miss Jennie Carpenter. The date of the marriage was not announced, but the happy event will occur in the near future. After congratulations and refreshments the friends took their departure.

A BOSTON GIRL'S LIFE

Saved from Ruin and Despair by the Timely Aid of a Noted Woman.

[SPECIAL TO OUR LADY READERS.]

IS there anything more truly pathetic than the cry for help that springs from the anguished heart of a young girl—a beautiful girl who sees ahead only suffering and uncertainty?

But oh, what joy and gladness her young heart pours forth when she realizes that her dreaded enemy, the blasting influence, is gone,—banished forever.

This sunshine and joy is now the happy portion of Miss Florence ——— of Beacon Street, Boston

She often tells of her suffering from the suppression of the menses. The pain was excruciating. The doctors, instead of removing the cause of her ailment, plied her each month with morphine to prevent convulsions; but the trouble was permitted to exist

When she could endure no more,—prostration was imminent and future hopeless,—her family procured a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which, surprising to all, rapidly and permanently cured her

In writing to Mrs Pinkham, pouring forth her gratitude and happiness, she says. "Oh! that I could make every suffering woman try your valuable medicine! How they would bless you!"
